

"Look what you made me do" Insights into family violence

Join us for the next Conversation Series Live Event with Susan Hamilton-Green and guest speaker Ena Shaw.

8.00 am to
8.30 am

Creative Family
Law Solutions
Facebook Page

2 October
2019

Hear from our speakers as they discuss the current best seller on family violence : "See what you made me do" by Jess Hill including:

1. Family violence as a national emergency;
2. How the abuse experienced by women and children is reinforced by the justice system that they look to for protection.
3. The question we should be asking of victims and perpetrators;
4. How to put perpetrators, and the systems that enable them, in the spotlight.

Ena Shaw, Psychologist, FDRP and lecturer

Ena is a registered psychologist, registered Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner, and lecturer in ADR at RMIT. She has her own practice providing family mediation and works as a collaborative practitioner.

Susan Hamilton-Green, Accredited Family Law Specialist, FDRP & Adjunct Lecturer at the College of Law

Susan is the principal of Creative Family Law Solutions. She has been a practicing solicitor for more than 30 years. She is an FDRP, trained conflict coach, ICL and offers litigation support.

Tune in and ask your questions live!